WOOL.

Wool buyer's in town are paying from 30 to 45 cents per pound for wool according to quality and reature, and some choice lots sold for 50 cents. We find the following in the last Onto FARMER:---

It will be seen by this there is a prospect of an advance in price; whether it is certain enough to warrant growers to hold on to their clips we know not. The Wellsburg Herald have .--

There has during the week been some stir in the wool market some of the best chips having been sold at as high as 55 cents per pound, which is the same as the same clips brought last season, and something higher, we belive, than was anticipated. The Wheeling Intelligencer says:-- very good substitute for wheat, and if weevil deatroys the wheat and not the Rye, the cultivation of this article may be an object. Agricultural Friends let us hear from you on this subject.

WEEVIL .-- For some days past we have examined wheat in several fields in this County and Harrison, without finding the feast evidence of the weevil. We have heard, however that it has made its appearance in some places in this County. The sect found plentifully in the mullein is not the weevil, as many suppose, though bearing a very striking resemblence to it.

THE WATCHMAN .- This is an entirely new work, one that has created considerable interest among the reading public. We have no hesitancy in saying that it is a work well suited to the minds of all, and cannot help being of use to all who may give it a perusal. It goes to show that the poor outcast from society, may, through perseverance and honesty, rise to the highest stations in life -That "honesty is the best policy." It abounds in incident and adventure, and while it interests the the reader, it points to a wholesome moral. For A. C. MARTIN & Co. sale by
